Have not been in contact with Grant since we were in the Navy together, now its my loss that we did not reconnect.
I received notification from a mutual friend of Grant and myself (Sean Bradley) and now wish very much that the three of us could have gotten together as he was the center of all get togethers and parties as I remembered. My family and I pray for the Evans family and hope the pain of his loss subsides soon and all the great memories remain forever. Regards Robert Erath
