“ I just learned of Ken's passing in the Brown Bulletin from JBU. I am so sorry, but grateful for the memories of my friend and suite mate at JBU. What a talented and warm-hearted soul. I still remember living with him during the spring of 1969 and playing Beatles' records backwards to hear "the Walrus is Paul" He almost convinced me to become a broadcast major. I know how happy you made him Norma Jean. God Bless.

“ Norma - I was saddened to hear of your loss. I am blessed to have gotten to know you both (outside of your being my English/Poetry teacher in high school), but also as being your neighbor for many years. Brought back memories from so long ago, helping to take care of your fur babies. I remember Ken was so gracious to tour me about his studio & I enjoyed getting to hear about some of the artists whom had recorded with him. He was always so kind, a beautiful soul. And who could've known that we would once again be neighbors years later. So happy to have you as a neighbor. May you be brought peace in this time of loss. You and your family are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ To say the Flory family and Benson family were close in our growing up years, is an understatement. So many times and events were shared, I was truly blessed to call Ken a friend. I took piano lessons and plodded through, Ken heard music, and with that God given talent, could play many songs by ear. Such a caring sweet gentleman. A dear man who will be missed by many. “ Norma: Our condolences to you. We had Ken in our "growing up years" in Clinton, Iowa. We were Judy's age so he was always considered her little brother to tag along with us. And you had Ken during his adult years/ I'm so glad to know that he was happy and had you in his life. I am one of the three "Benson Girls" that was so much a part of The Florys. Sincerely, Linda Benson Tanner
