

Wilma Lucille Webb

December 9, 1932 - November 20, 2019

Born December 9, 1932 at her home in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma to Rex Cooper and Lona Yount. At an early age she moved to Northwest Arkansas. This is where she met Dale Webb, in the bean patch. They married while Dale was home on leave from the US Navy. Dale was six days shy of his 21 birthday and his parents had to sign for them to be married. The first three years of their marriage Dale was stationed on the USS Philippine Sea. Dale and Wilma were true soulmates. They made their home in Seager Creek Hollow, outside of Siloam Springs, AR. In this home they raised their three children; Rocky, Ronnie Joe, and Sherri Gayle. Wilma was a true homemaker by helping on the family farm. To add to the family income she baked and decorated cakes, picked strawberries, walnuts, and poke. Many people remember Wilma for her intricate quilts. She had a passion for gifting her quilts for marriages, births, graduations, and birthdays. She was an avid Sunday school teacher. She was creative in developing her own bible school lessons, songs, and poems. She was the hands and feet of Christ for all around her. After retirement she enjoyed spending time traveling with her family.

“ Wilma was a sweet soul and always made me feel special when we had interactions on occasion. Her uncle Clifford was my dad's stepfather and Wilma always had kind things to share about my grandmother. Sending prayers of comfort to all of the family during this very sad time.

“ Wilma is my grandmother and one of my best friends! For as long as I can remember I loved her. She was a special lady in so many ways. My grandparents have been an amazing example to everyone who knew them of how love should be in a marriage for 68 years. She will be missed by so many. I have no doubt that she had a joyous reunion in heaven Wednesday with Jesus and all who had preceded her in death. She was a true servant of Christ. She knew and taught his message to many. I know she prayed for me daily. I am so sad to she is not here on earth anymore but I know she will be there to greet me when it is my time to enter Heavens gates and it makes it that much sweeter!

You will live on in my heart!

“ Rocky, Ronnie, Sherry & family...we are so sorry for your loss. May your memories & God's love bring you peace, comfort & strength at this difficult time. Death takes the body. God takes the soul. Our mind holds the memories. Our heart keeps the love. Our faith lets us know we will meet again.

“ My heartfelt condolences to the family. The Cooper \ Webb families were not blood related to my family but I considered them family and loved them as such. Someday we'll all be together again and will cherish those precious memories. Sending prayers for comfort and loving hugs to all.
