“ Kathryn -
Sorry to hear about Agnes. Wanted you to know I am thinking of you. Remember the times we had working together at Ralph Jones. Hope to see you again sometime. (I saw Agnes a few times in the nursing home while Dad was in there. It's so hard to see them in that situation, but it's for the best.)
Take care and be happy.

“ Kathryn, I'm glad we had a chance to chat on the phone Monday. Just to let you know my dad Mac is grieving over the loss of his last sister and sends you his deepest sympathy and regret over his inability to attend the service. Even at 94, I think he could have made the trip with a little supervision--but it just wasn't possible. All our love, your uncle "Mac" and families.
