“ Aileen was my neighbor for many years. It was always pleasant to spend time with her. In her younger years she would watch my properly for me when I was away. I will miss her, and no one can take her place. My prayers are with her family at this sad time.

“ Jackie,
I was so sorry to see that your mom has died. I saw it too late to go to her service but wanted you to know that I will be praying for you. It is hard to lose your mom but wow the Lord gave her 90 years! God will comfort you in the days ahead.
God Bless you and family,
Donna Cook

“ Just a note to let you all know we are thinking of you and remembering you in our prayers. Mrs. Covey was always so sweet and friendly to us. We have good memories to keep of her. May the Lord be with you and give you comfort and peace, dear ones.
