“ Paula, although it has been many years since our school days in S.S., I still have good memories of your dad taking us to your grandparents farm, and us making gingerbread houses with your mom. I also remember shopping at IGA over the years and knowing that your dad would always been in the produce dept with a smile for everyone. I'm very sorry for your loss.

“ Hello to your family,
I was so sorry and shocked to see the obituray for Al Dee in the Delaware County Journal. Barbara, I remeber meeting you years ago. I also remember "little Freddie". He was such a cute little boy at about 3-4 yrs. of age. I also remember what a beautiful little girl Carolyn was.
I think of Norma Jean often and all the good times we all used to have.
I know you have God's help & many wonderful memories to sustain you in the time of grief.
