“ Al came into my world as a neighbor and turned into a very wonderful friend. We could chat about books and always wave as we saw each other. He always was kind to my family and I, even though he referred to me as the hateful heifer. He always put a smile on my face and his memory always will. The world is better for having him in it and a little dimmer now that he has gone to be with the Lord. I look forward to seeing him again one day in heaven. My deepest condolences and sympathies to his family and friends.
