“ Pappy and Leonard, I am so very sorry to hear of your loss. I remember as a kid over at Grandma and Grandpa's when you all would come over and she was just a very special lady. Then Pappy and Leonard behold we all work for Allens. It was nice to rememience about all of the old times and fun as a kid. Leonard, I am sure you don't remember, you were still in diapers. LOL. My prayers are with all of you and God will get you through this very tough time. Leonard take care of Pappy, and God Bless you both! Love.

“ Unfortunately most of my memories of Aunt Alice are from long ago. I do however remember her as a kind and gentle person. My thoughts and prayers go out to Jim, Leonard, Pat and all your families who will miss Alice so badly. Be strong as a family and you will be fine. God Bless.
