“ So thankful I got to visit with Alvie before he passed. He was a good person. He was a farmer and loved to grow things. He loved his Mom and Dad my Grandma and Grandpa Trammell. He looked and sounded so much like Grandpa - always wearing his overalls. He was born and grew up when times were very hard and money was scarce but he always had the love of his folks. He shared the appreciation of the sacrifices that his folks made and how difficult it was for them to make a living. He shared how they worked hard and never complained but always praised God for their family and the blessings in their lives. I loved hearing the stories of their childhood. Alvie's mind remained sharp and he loved God and his family. Ray I know that he really appreciated you and Juna and the care that you gave him even when you both faced cancer Ray for your wife and Juna I admire the courage you have shown. He loved his grandkids. I wish the family peace and love. Alvie I wish you eternal peace and joy in heaven. There are no more tears in heaven. All wounds are healed. Janie (Ethel's daughter)
