“ *Andrea, soul sister, gift bearer, 15 years ago you gave to us the most precious gift anyone could ever give to another person, my beautiful daughter Yolanda. You have always had a special place in all our hearts, and always will.
My prayer for you is that you have finally found a smooth path to travel down and that you may rest in peace. My wish for you is that you could have met Yolanda. She had made a list of 20 things that she wanted to do and meeting her Birth Mother was on the top of that list. One day...
Forever in my heart

“ Where do I start how do I begin to put into words the memories that will never end from your laugh to you burning off my barbie's hair. How about all the crazy things that you did to me when I was little. I forgive you it was all fun you were always crazy like that. I still cant pop my toes like you though. I'll never forget us acting like cheerleaders and how much you liked tigers and panthers or how you broke my moms lamp and glued it back together and she didn't find out until you were long gone, yeah I hear you laughing now. There's so much more but thats for another time. You were more like a big sister to me than an aunt. I Love you, and to all of her children I know a little crazy yet beatiful piece of her will live on in each of you. Gods plan is to great for us to understand sometimes but only time will tell what it is. I love all of you!

The loss of your mother has caught everyone by surprise. Please know I love all of you and wish I could be with you at this time. Your mother loved each of you and is going to be with you always. Watching, guiding, and cheering you on. I just know she will be the best guardian angel ever.

“ Andrea,
This is not at all how it was suppose to be, unfinished plans and unlived dreams. This is the hardest of times to understand God's plans. My prayer for you is strength and my wish for you is peace. I love you.

“Wow sis I cannot believe that you are gone. My heart is so broken over this tragedy, that words can't express it. You were a very strong and self supportive person, one of your best qualities. I so wished these last years we lived closer. I was always close to you has a sister. It hurts to think back to when we were kids, knowing that I will never get to see you again. I am so sorry I didn't call back last weekend when you called, god I hurt over that. We survived some tough times together, now I will press on knowing that you are in a better place. I love you with all my heart sis, god I wish circumstances were different. Girls I want you to know that you will always be loved and your family in California will do our best for all of you. Never forget that we will always be here. Most important, remember how much your mom loved all of you. Sis my heart so aches, RIP, you are in a better place now. I will never forget you, or will my heart. We will all miss you. Love you! I wish I could of seen you once more.

“ Chris was very close to your mom and he wanted you to know you mom loved all of you with all her heart. And as a mother I know you mom ALWAYS tried to do what she thought was best for all of you. Even if you didn't always understand. I know when your mom came to my house she ALWAYS spoke very highly of all of you she was so proud of you. And Chris really like helping you mom work on trucks. And he Loved Joking around with you Brittany he still talks about a belt that you and you boyfriend come home with after a shopping trip. Kids life isn't always fair but you remember You are LOVED by so many so if you EVER need anything All you need to do is drop a hint and My whole Family will be there. We understand the pain you all are feeling right now because we all lost Chris father when Chris was just 17. But just hang in there- time will help with all the pain and one day YOUR MOTHER WILL BE A VERY GOOD THOUGHT AND a SMILE WILL BE ON YOUR FACE
