

Andrew Janes

May 15, 1932 - March 2, 2005

Andrew "Jack" Janes, 72 year-old resident of Watts, Oklahoma, died March 2, 2005, at his residence. Born May 15, 1932 in Adair County, Oklahoma, he was the son of Andrew Janes and Olive Hewes Janes. He was an Army Veteran of the Korean War and a self-employed carpenter. Jack was preceded in death by five brothers, Dan Janes, Dean Janes, Hugh Janes, James Janes and Richard Janes; and one sister, Julie Janes. Survivors include one daughter, Rhonda White of Garfield, Arkansas; one grandson, Jarrett Curtsinger of Prairie Grove, Arkansas; two brothers, J.C. Janes of Sacramento, California, Charlie Janes of Watts, Oklahoma; four sisters, Willie Kreig of Phoenix, Arizona, Altie Rosebeary, Juanita Reese, and Mary Cox, all of Watts, Oklahoma; one sister-in-law, Sue Janes of Disney, Oklahoma; and a number of nieces and nephews. Graveside services will be 10:00 a.m. Saturday, March 5, 2005, at Baptist Mission Cemetery, near Westville, Oklahoma, with Mr. Jim Beavers officiating. Visitation will be 4:00 to 6:00 p.m., Friday, March 4, 2005, at Wasson Funeral Home, Siloam Springs, Arkansas. Arrangements are under the direction of Wasson Funeral Home, Siloam Springs, Arkansas.

Tribute Wall

HA

“ Always liked to talk with him and his mother when they both lived in Watts. Sorry to hear of his passing.

Howard Anderson - September 19, 2012 at 11:33 AM