We cherish all of the wonderful memories of your mother. We enjoyed visting her in Siloam Springs two years ago and seeing her alert and healthy.

Her friendship with my mother meant a great deal to both of them. We are convinced that they are now in heaven having their morning coffee and discussing their wonderful children and grandchildren. They loved all of them very much.

“ More than a "best friend's" mother, she really was a second mother to me for over 50 years!! My fondest memories of Annie were driving Sharon and I around the backroads and creek roads of Arkansas in her big ol' Buick! Also, watching her make a five-course meal in 60 seconds for her beloved Homer which always included a whopper piece of steak. She was a dear, dear lady and always signed her cards to me with "Mom No. 2". God is surely smiling with this lovely addition to his flock.

“ I am so sorry to hear about your loss. You must be going through a lot of pain right now.

I've always been comforted by Jesus' words at John 5:28,29:"the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his(Jesus) voice and come out."

Knowing that God does not cause death is also comforting. Hebrews 2:14 says:"he (Jesus) will bring to nothing the one having the means to cause death, that is, the Devil."

When Lazarus died, Jesus grieved. John 11:35 says:"Jesus gave way to tears." So if Jesus wept, even though he was about to resurrect Lazarus, then surely he feels for those of us who grieve!

Although there is no way to completely erase your pain, thinking on scriptures like these can help us to cope.

*Very Sincerely
Scott Smith*
