“ We were across the street neighbors with James and Anna Mae for 20 years. They were wonderful people. She gave me many hand-created Christmas decorations over the years, and I took cinnamon rolls to them. We have many good memories of them and our neighborhood. We were sorry to hear of her passing and extend our sympathy and prayers to her family. Jim and Jane Clayberg

“ Dear Judy and Debbie,

Where would I begin? Memories go back to when we lived in the same neighborhood growing up. Going to church together, “cruising” on Friday nights.

Dear ones, blessings of peace and comfort as you continue your grief journey.
