“ We are sorry for your great loss. It is our prayer that the Lord will be especially near and dear to you during this difficult time. How wonderful that we have the promise of Jesus soon return...that is encouraging, but doesn't take away the present sorrow of losing your dear mother. May it be a comfort knowing your friends care.

“ We treasure the time we had in the last few years with you and Mel. Working for you and hearing the passion for Christ and the love for family you both show. Our children still cherish the christmas decorations you so kindly gave them.
