“ Deby and Karen,

Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you. I wish we could have been there with you. I have wonderful memories of growing up with you guys and how close we were since our Moms were sisters. I hope that we always remember our "roots" and that we keep in touch always.

God Bless.

Love,

Cindy, Skeets and Family

“ I met Anna at her home maybe a year ago. I cut her hair, then one day at the Nursing home she suprised me with a visit. I did her hair there. Then she suprised me again when she went to be with the Lord. I grew to love her very much. Anna you will be greatly missed. My prayers are with your family. Love Sheila Reynolds.
