“ It was a special time for me to have had the opportunity to visit with family I had not seen or heard from for decades prior to our reunion in Park City, Utah. Anthony and his family were some of the folks that had come to my mind over the years from time to time wondering what they were doing with the life that God had presented them with. My wife, Barbara, and I thoroughly enjoyed visiting with Anthony and Sandra while at Park City, sharing our experiences about ourselves and our families and all of the things that fit in those conversations, right along with the rest of the aunts, uncles, and cousins at the reunion. Our prayers are with you, Sandra, and Chris, and the rest of your family.

“ God looked around his garden and found an empty place,
He then looked down and saw you tired face
He put his arm around you and lifted you to rest,
Gods garden must be beautiful, He always takes the best,
He knew that you were suffering; He knew that you were in pain,
He knew that you would never get well again,
He saw the road was getting rough, and the hills were hard to climb,
So he closed you weary eyelids and whispered ?Peace be thine?
It broke my heart to lose you, but you did not go alone,
For part of me went with you the day God called you home
Vida Grover, Bob Grover's wife

*This gives me comfort when thinking of Bob and all he went through, im giving it to you as you might get comfort from it too.
all my prayers

“ I am so thankful for the reconnection I was able to have with Anthony at the Grover Reunion in Park City, Utah. And, what a blessing to meet Sandra and to feel Anthony's love and devotion to her. Although those who shared in Anthony's earthly life will miss him terribly, he will live on in the many, many lives he touched. While death is an end to this life, it is a doorway to eternal life. Until we meet you there, Anthony, we will keep you in our hearts and in our memories. In sympathy to Sandra, Chris, & April . . . love, Coni

“ We were sorry to hear of Anthony's death. I think we only met once, at the Grover family reunion in Denver but we enjoyed getting acquainted. As you share your grief, the good memories will soon overshadow the hard places. God IS blessing you!

“ Sandra, We were so sorry to hear about Tony's illness and passing. He was such a very special guy and I'm sure he will be missed terribly.

All we can know is that he is in a better place where he's no longer in pain and he can once again do whatever he wants, without being short of breath or tired. He will wait patiently for you because he loved you so.

You are in our thoughts and prayers.
