Clint Evers??? You old cowboy!! I was at Mountain Park with you!! Remember the horses and that one kid that got kicked in the head? We had to water all those trees down the driveway with water buckets. Man, that was a lifetime ago!!

I sure am going to miss his voice on the other end of the line and our conversations. Most of them were pretty funny ones and just chit chat about my kids, tv, things in town, friends, etc. We always ended with an "I love you" and I certainly did love this boy like one of my own. My heart aches for you all more than you know.
