“ So much has happened. So much you've missed. There's so much I want to tell you, so much I can't tell you. I miss you every day, I haven't been the same since you died. I still catch myself taking pictures of every sunset I think is beautiful, because all I see is you. We didn't talk very much before you died, but your funeral has been one of the hardest to get over. The way your mom cried, the way I held on to Rosy, it all became to much. I need you back. I don't think I can do this without you anymore. I need that smile back, I need that humor back, I need that attitude back. I need you. It hurts knowing that you're gone forever. It hurts knowing that I have to turn 18 and graduate without you being there to see it. I hope you're doing good up there in heaven sweet girl, keep smiling, hug your sister, and I hope your castle is as beautiful as you dreamed it would be. You're memory lives on.
Always.
Forever.

“ April was such a beautiful and bright person, she would always yell out my name every single morning and tells me she loves me . She always made sure I was ok. I love her everything in my heart . She had my back and I had hers , we would never let each be sad and would always cheer each other up and I would do anything to have one more hug and “I love you” from my beautiful girl .. -metyso
