“ Whenever I heard the word "uncle," Uncle Archie always came to mind because he was the only uncle I knew as an adult. Glad I stopped by two months ago. I will see you again soon, Uncle Archie.

“ Archie was a dear friend to Gordon and me. He was one of the nicest people I knew. He was quiet, kind and friendly and he made the best beef jerky! He was a faithful member of Gum Springs Baptist Church and was always there to greet people and give them a bulletin on Sunday mornings. He will be greatly missed. I pray for and the family to experience Gods peace and comfort.
