“ Karen, I read your dad's obituary in the paper. I used to be your mom's Sunday School teacher at Harvard Ave. Baptist Church, and you had visited our class with your mom, remember? So you're living in Westville now, eh? I'd love to make your re-acquaintance at least by phone sometime. But now, let me express my sympathy to you and yours in the loss of your dad.
In Christ's love, Margaret.

“ I was a carpenter with Art and worked with him many years. We hung a lot of doors together. We always enjoyed our time with each other. Art will be missed a lot.
