“ To Al the Family, You have my deepest sympathy. Arthur was a good man and a hard worker. I haven't seen him in a long time, but I always remember seeing how hard he worked on the home place. He was always so nice and friendly. My prayers go out to all of you at this very sad time. God bless you all and hold tight all the good memories. Your friend, Pat Boyle

“ I recall knowing Arthur from our Gentry school bus route. Arthur was a gentle “man” with an even “gentlier” soul. I had the utmost respect for Arthur Kohen. Heave just received an awesome gift.

Lillian, as you read this memory message, please know that your sweet spirit made an indelible impression on me. I recall your smile and kindness, even to this day. I am so very sorry for your loss. Arthur was a great man.
