“ *Helen,
I read of your loss in the Rogers paper and wanted you to know I am thinking of you and your family. I miss our visits when you used to come to GF to monitor your student teachers. Hope you and your family are doing well.*

*Sincerely,
Joyce*

“ Im sorry to hear this Helen, but the time comes for all of us. What I remember about your mother and father most was the hours we spent playing cards at your hous on the Bradshaw Mtn., when we were young and had to make our owen entertainment. Those days I will never forget, your mother and father was so kind to a bunch of teenagers that had nothing to do.
