“ Dearest Gaston, Barney, Sherry

My deepest sympathy to you on the loss of a wonderful wife and mother.

I have the most fond memory of Marie and I being at your house in Kentucky for Christmas. The food was wonderful and Audrey always had special homemade cookies for us. She was a precious lady and I was blessed to get to know her. Gaston and Audrey were always there for Marie and I if we ever needed them and I have never forgotten it.

I also remember a fantastic trip to Arkansas, where Anna and Sherry played for many hours together. Then later on getting to meet Sherry's husband in Tennessee.

Barney and wife, you have distinguished yourselves well. I understand you are in Lebanon, TN. Prayerfully our paths will soon cross in Tennessee.

May God Bless each of you at this time of loss and Thank You for sharing such a precious lady with the rest of us.

I LOVE YOU. J.R.
