“ I was so sad to hear about Barbara's passing. She used to live next door to my mother, Elsie Little on Cheri Whitlock, and was a wonderful neighbor. Many, many times Barbara was there to help my Mom when she needed it and for this my family and I will always be grateful. I'm sure my mother would also like to send her condolences.

*“ We would like you to know that you are in our thoughts during this difficult moment.
The distance didn't allow us to see Barb often, but she was a very special person. She will certainly live on as a warm memory in all of our hearts for years to come.*
