“ After my parents divorced, my mom moved us to Siloam Springs in 1976. I would enter second grade that fall. We lived next door to the Reynolds family on Carl Street.

Mom worked nights, so as a latchkey kid, I would usually come home to an empty house. Having Barbara and Dule next door gave me the security and confidence I didn't realize I had or needed at the time. Through their direction and discipline of Kevin, Jeremy and Doug, I am also realizing I learned right from wrong indirectly, and witnessed the goodness of an intact family.

I remember joining garage sales with Barbara. She let me bring over my old toys and clothes, fish aquariums and hamster cages to make spending money.

It is sad to hear of Barbara's passing. I am glad I went to visit Dule and Barbara a few times when I was in Siloam Springs. She will forever be an anchor to good memories of my childhood.

Thank you, Barbara for being a part of my childhood and looking out for me. I guess it really does take a village.

My condolences to Dule, Kevin, Jeremy, Doug, Carolyn, David and Holly.
