“ I will miss my Grandma. I will miss catching fireflies in the backyard and eating ice cream on the front steps. Their home, grandma and grand bob always will remind me of my childhood. Grandma was an incredible woman, yes she could be very set in her ways, but she loved people and was always welcoming. I wish she was able to meet my little one on the way but know she will be there with me as I raise her. I love you and will miss you.
