“ I remember Betty as the VBS director and GA teacher. When we were moving away, Malcolm and Betty along with Earl and Mae Dove invited us over for tea. Also, Betty along with Linda Coker did my wedding reception.

“ I have known Mrs. Betty for 9 years. Her kind spirit made her a joy to be around. Her love for people will always be my favorite memory. She could converse with everyone and enjoyed being in the moment. I pray Gods peace and comfort on Malcolm and the family.

“ We have been neighbors of the Reams since their move to Rogers and dearly loved Betty, her indomitable spirit and love of all things beautiful. She brought joy to the entire neighborhood as she and Malcom took evening "strolls" in their racing wheel chairs!

A wonderful, warm human being that we will miss very much. Praying for you Miss Betty.

I have known Betty forever. She was a special friend of my family and was my GA leaders for many years. Betty was a wonderful person and always looked for the best in anyone she met. She helped me plan my wedding and she and Lavada gave me a bridal shower at First Baptist Church of Highfull. I loved all the cards and letters that she sent and will certainly miss seeing those in my mail box.
