“ Mom,

Tomorrow will be a very hard day for your children, but I know that you are sleeping awaiting the return of Jesus. He will soon wake you to life eternal, free from pain and sickness. You have run your race and you finished with your eyes toward heaven. I can't even say how much I will miss you and miss your phone calls every morning at 8 a.m. Life won't be the same without you, but I will be busy with the Lord preparing for His return. So as you sleep I know you have no idea what I am writing here, but I just had to write that I love you so much and would not trade the past 4 months for anything. We laughed alot and we cried some as well, but only God in His wisdom knows how much I appreciate being able to care for you.

*I love you,
Donna
(your favorite daughter) ha!*

“ It's so hard to find the right words to say when you lose someone so special. Especially when you can't remember the last time you saw their face, or embraced them in your arms. I am so grateful that I can at least remember the last time I heard her voice. I am so sorry that I didn't make more of an attempt to reunite with you. I at least know now that you are watching over me from your place with God. I love you.

“ The thing I remember best about Betty is her laughing, she had a great sense of humor. Even that Christmas when Tommie and I brought a "guest" for dinner! I know she will be missed much here on earth but heaven is rejoicing today!
Love always,
Renee
