

Betty Ruth McDonald

September 22, 1936 - August 11, 2021

Betty Ruth McDonald, 84, of Siloam Springs, Arkansas, died on August 11, 2021, at Siloam Springs Regional Hospital. She was born on September 22, 1936, in Siloam Springs, Arkansas, to Gerald Thomason and Eula Hutchinson. Besides Betty's love for bowling and music she so enjoyed spending time with her children and grandchildren and was a game player a boogeyman chaser and always full of laughter; she was also a teacher of life, a great secret keeper, and a best friend to all her children. Even throughout her children's adult life she always welcomed their spouses into the family and loved them as her own. Betty was a wife, a mother, a grandmother, and a lover of life and raised her children to band together and love each other through everything and she always had a special way of letting you know just how much you were loved every day.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Gerald and Eula, and her husband, Billie McDonald.

She is survived by two sons, Gerald McDonald and wife Cindy, of Colcord, Oklahoma, and Danny McDonald, of Siloam Springs, Arkansas; two daughters, Anita Keith, of Siloam Springs, Arkansas, and Laura Garcia, of Siloam Springs, Arkansas; eight grandchildren, and seven great-grandchildren.
