

Beulah Cooper

August 28, 1913 - March 21, 2010

Beulah Katherin Cooper, 96, formerly from Siloam Springs, Arkansas, died March 22, 2010, at Fayetteville Health and Rehab, Fayetteville, Arkansas. Born August 28, 1913, in Siloam Springs, Arkansas, she was the daughter of Mabel McCann Walker and Mart Walker. Beulah graduated from Siloam Springs Public School and attended John Brown University, and graduated from the Business School in Springfield, Missouri. She was a bookkeeper for Capital Hotel Inc., Tipton Hurst Florist, and Little Rock Country Club, all in Little Rock, Arkansas. For the last few years, she had been a resident of Fayetteville Health and Rehab. She was of the Baptist faith. She was preceded in death by her parents; two brothers, Callie Walker and Paul Walker; and two husbands Blue Chandler and Henry Cooper.

Survivors include one daughter Marta Lou Chandler of Bella Vista; one son, Stephen Cooper of Fayetteville, Arkansas; two grandchildren, Mike Kretschmar of Minnetonka, Minnesota, and Kelly Smith of Farmington, Arkansas; and one great grandchild, Lauren Smith. Graveside services will be 2:00 p.m., Friday, March 26, 2010, at Oak Hill Cemetery, Siloam Springs, Arkansas, with Pat Taylor officiating.

Tribute Wall

PS

“ Beulah lived a special life filled with adventure and a curiosity about human nature. She was a very special person that will live in our hearts and our memories. You're free Beulah to join your friends and loved ones in the next life. Go with God. ”

Pam Styles - September 19, 2012 at 01:07 PM