“ We wanted the family to know that we were sorry to not be able to attend Bill's service. We were out of town. Charlie had always admired Bill; especially being on the Deacon Committee with him. He felt that Bill made very sound and Biblical comments during Deacon meetings. He and Carol were models of parenting, friendship, and living as Believers. He will be missed by many in Siloam Springs.

“ My son Darrel remembers when he first met my uncle Bill as a child and found out he worked for Allen canning company, (and received a Popeye hat) that he thought Uncle Bill did all the growing and picking of the foods. We are sorry we are unable to attend the services. He was a great man and will be missed. Anita Bartholomew Manning

“ I was so sorry to hear about your daddy passing. I have had so many wonderful thoughts running through my memory about your happy household when we were all kids and neighbors. Your parents were always so glad to see me when I would see them at church. You guys are in my thoughts and prayers. So sorry I will not see you on Monday. Thanks for being a part of my childhood memories.

“ The depth of the hurt that you feel is measured in tears, and reflects the effect of the life that was enjoyed. For all of my life "Uncle Bill" was an upright and godly man. The truth of this is seen in the family raised. Our love and prayers are with you...look to the true Promises! - Bruce and Carol Potter

“ I'm so sad to hear of Bill's passing. I started my career at Allen's in the late 80's and soon found myself working with Bill on all the consumer issues. He was very respected and intimidated me! Him and his red pen would attack all the letter I typed for him. Over time he kind of grew fond of me... I think it was the chocolate brownies! I hated to see him retire, but his example of dedication and integrity inspired me. After he left, he would pop back in and bring me the prettiest rose. I have a special crystal vase he bought me that will forever remind me of him. He was a very special man! - Sherry Bartlett
