

Bill Chandler

August 16, 1931 - March 30, 2008

Bill Chandler, 76 year-old resident of Siloam Springs, Arkansas, died March 30, 2008, at Heritage Park in Rogers, Arkansas. Born August 16, 1931, in Osgood, Indiana, he was the son of Lawrence Chandler and Marguerite Kettle Chandler. He was an Army Airborne Veteran of the Korean War. He moved to Siloam Springs in July 2005, after living in Houston, Texas, most of his married life. He was a General Services Manager for Mobil Oil Company. He married Shelley York in Roswell, New Mexico, on August 19, 1955. He was a member of the Siloam Springs Church of the Nazarene. Bill was very involved in his church, and enjoyed gardening, sports, and woodworking. He was preceded in death by one brother, Leland Chandler. Survivors include his wife Shelley of the home; one son, Mark Chandler and wife Annette of Houston, Texas; two daughters, Cheryl Foxworthy and husband Rev. Warren Foxworthy II of Siloam Springs, Arkansas, and Linda Hosey and husband Dr. Russell Hosey of Crown Point, Indiana; and five grandchildren. Funeral services will be 10:00 a.m., Wednesday, April 2, 2008, at Wasson Memorial Chapel, Siloam Springs, Arkansas, with Dr. Russell Hosey and Rev. Warren Foxworthy II officiating. Burial will follow at Oak Hill Cemetery, Siloam Springs, Arkansas. Visitation will be 9:00 a.m., Wednesday, prior to the service, at Wasson Funeral Home.

“ I am so saddened to hear about Bill...
He truly was a fatherly role model for me and I will always be grateful for that!
Shelley, you and Bill will always have a special place in my heart...
Cheryl, Mark, Linda--I love you all...
Bill had many qualities--integrity, kindness, love...Most of all, I admired the way he was the Godly man that he was.
His was truly a well-lived life and now God will embrace him and say "Well done, good and faithful servant!"
Lovingly,
Rose
