“ I have awesome memories with Ducie and her parents. They always treated me like their family. I spent much of my time at their house. When Boo was very little I remember all of us at the supper table night after night. They even took me along on a family vacation. Bill was a " father figure" kind a man in my life. Not that I always listened but he advised me and tried to guide me in paths I needed to be on. I truly love him as I do Ducie. This man Bill Watt will truly be missed by many many folks.
