“ I feel so blessed to have known Sis. Billie. I was able to share some special times with her at the church, the senior center, and her home. I was amazed at her energy she had in her late 80's. She assured me of her relationship with Jesus. And loved to sing those old hymns in honor of her Lord. I am praying for all the family that the God of all comfort will give you peace.

“ Was so sad to see the paper today! Praying for the family. Billie has left many people who knew her and her warm sweet smile. We shared times with her on Tuesday mornings at the Siloam Springs Senior, Senior Sing Along. What a blessing to hear her praise our Heavenly Father and share visiting over lunch. Our lives are blessed for knowing her!

“ This dear lady was a grandmother to our first grandson (Lee Crain) our daughter married James Crain just out of high school. the two of them have served the Lord through out their marriage. I believe the acorn never falls far from the tree, Jim, my son-law is one of the most outstanding men I have ever known. Billie & Arnold raised a family teaching them, to love God first, put the family next, & serving in the church of your choice is a winning combination.

Billie rest in Jesus, Phyllis & I wont be long behind you.

“ Billie was an amazing woman. She was so full of stories and could keep us entertained for hours. Her love for others reflected her love for her Lord Jesus. She will be missed, and I would love to come to her funeral, but I know so many others are thinking the same thing, but will respect the limit allowed and spend the service time praying for friends and family. Remembering her brings a smile to our hearts. With love, Larry Keith and Lady Jewel Taylor.
