

Bonnie Elaine Fox

August 16, 1984 - March 16, 2026

Bonnie Elaine Fox, 41, got her wings and went to be with her Lord on March 16, 2026, in Rogers, AR. Bonnie was born on August 16, 1984, in Siloam Springs, AR, to Stan Fox and Rita Curran Fox.

Bonnie grew up in Gentry, AR, the baby of the Fox family and only little sister to four brothers, Dwayne, Randy, Mike, and Darrell. Bonnie was an outstanding athlete and graduated from Gentry High School in 2002.

After high school, Bonnie attended Bacone College in Muskogee, OK, where she played basketball and earned her degree in Sports Management. Bonnie was self-employed, running her own cleaning business.

Bonnie was baptized and was a member of the First Baptist Church in Gentry, AR. Besides being an outstanding player herself, Bonnie was a huge basketball fan. She enjoyed floating the river, spending time outdoors, and was a social butterfly, never meeting a stranger. However, her greatest joy came from her twin boys, Gary Ray and Noah Stanley.

Bonnie is preceded in death by her father, Stanley Harold Fox. She is survived by her mother, Rita Fox Hopkins and husband, Daryl; brothers, Dwayne Fox and wife, Erica, of Gentry, AR, and children: Wyatt (Kya) Clark, Luke Fox, Whitney Fox, Jaxon Denniston, Sean (Samantha) Taylor, Malachi Taylor and Levi Taylor; Randy Fox and wife, Brandy, of Siloam Springs and children: Brooklyn (Chris) Taylor; Levi Fox, and Haylee Fox; and Scott and Jessica Hopkins of Old Monroe, MO; Mike Fox and wife, Heather of Gentry, AR, and children Aubrey Fox and Tyler Fox; Darrell and Amy Fox of Gentry, AR and children: Ryan Fox, Trevor Fox; Taylor Hooper, Karadie (Ky) Murray, and Bailee (Brody) Bland; along with aunts, uncles, cousins and many friends. A visitation is planned for Thursday, March 19, 2026, at the First Baptist Church in Gentry, AR, from 5 pm – 7 pm. A celebration of Bonnie's life will be held on Friday, March 20, 2026, at the First Baptist Church. Memorial contributions may be made to Douglas Cemetery, 201 NW Holland Avenue, Gentry, AR.
