“ Dear Raymond and family; just a few days ago I learned of Brenda's illness so was very shocked to read her name in Sunday's paper. I remember Brenda as a very nice, shy, fun person. After listening to her tribute yesterday, I realized anew that she and I shared several pasttimes: reading, sewing, and shopping, just to name a few.

It is hard to say goodbye to a loved one, but the hope of eternal life makes it more bearable. Brenda sounded like a wonderful wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. Read Proverbs 31 which discusses the attributes of a godly woman. Your family has been in my thoughts so much the past few days. God bless each of you and give you comfort. Sincerely, Patty “ Shawna and family--We are so sorry to hear the loss of your mother. I just lost my Granny Leona a week ago and i know how hard it is, but take trust and faith that you will see her again someday and in a much better place. What a wonderful reunion we have to look forward to. If there is anything we can do, please let us know. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.
