“ Goodbye to a cherished member of our community, Cameron. His unwavering faith and genuine care for others touched the lives of everyone who knew him, and he will be deeply missed. Cameron's warm smile, compassionate spirit, and sense of humor brightened our days and brought joy to our hearts. I will always remember the way he selflessly offered to help out at church, his kindness towards others, and the laughter he brought to our lives. I remember How Cameron was one of the people I looked forward to seeing in Church every weekend. He was always asking about everybody and truly cared. Whenever my husband missed church Cameron always asked if I wanted him to do the slides. Then he would forget he had it and I would turn around and just laugh because he would be staring at me because he thought I had it. He always made me laugh. I will truly miss him.

“ Cameron, my heart hurts to know you are gone. I have not seen you in years, but I have the most fond memories of genuine and real conversations (often to the background noise of Tom Petty), and I have appreciated your kind remarks on Facebook through the years. I have always held you with such respectful regard. Thanks for the float trips back in the day, and mostly, for always showing a kind heart and sincere amount of care for human beings. You were a light on this earth, and you will be missed.

Your family is beautiful. Praying Jesus will bring your family peace and comfort during this time of sorrow.

“ I've been fortunate to share countless memories with Cam, and though it's impossible to recount every single one, I'd like to take a moment to acknowledge what a truly exceptional person he was. His kindness, generosity, and infectious sense of humor made him a joy to be around, and how grateful to have had him in my life. Even though I can't share every memory, I hope that this small tribute does him justice and conveys the impact he had on me. Though Cameron was not my biological father, he stepped into my life and filled a role that went beyond mere titles. He showed so much love for my mom, brother, sister and me. Cameron's love for us was unwavering and unconditional, a love that transcended blood ties. Every moment I spent with him I felt cherished, never once feeling like an outsider. His affection was a constant reminder that family is not just about biology, but about the bonds we form with those who touch our hearts.

He instantly fit so well in our goofy family with his goofy impressions, dance moves and bad jokes. He would regale us with one of his terrible jokes, and at first, all we could do was roll our eyes. But his infectious laugh would kick in, and before you knew it, you'd be giggling along with him, helpless to resist the silly joy that radiated from him. He was very passionate about guitar, hunting and was devoted to his faith. He brought so much happiness and light into our family, and I'm forever grateful for that.

“Cameron married Hailey Lincecum in 2018 and was the proud father to two extra daughters; Victoria Betancourt and Elizabeth Betancourt. Cam was a devoted christian. Cam would play his guitar and sing songs in the living room at the end of the day. You could always count on him to be goofy and he was always prepared to breakout in to song and dance. He loved his son Beau Lincecum immensely. Beau and Cam would take trips out to the families farm to hunt. They were inseparable. Cam also had his two daughters Elizabeth and Victoria. He shared guitar lessons with Elizabeth and would connect with Victoria over their shared humor and wittiness. Finally Cameron loved and adored Hailey Lincecum. He would go out of his way to make sure she felt protected. If you walk out to the backyard you would see the shed Cam built for his son with a flower bed to the right for Hailey. I never knew how much I loved Cameron until he left this world. He was the friend and father that I wanted. I love you lots Cammy. Over and out.

“ My nephew Cameron
Make no mistake he was a Christian man. He loved Jesus.
He knew more about the Bible than most pastors
A seeker of the word of God
A preacher of the Gospel
He'd give a bum his last ten dollars.
He gave to a fault.
He tithed to the church and when he could supported other ministries as well.
He said if he were ever rich he'd start a shelter for the throw aways of society for the lost and broken people
One of his favorite movies was the boon dock saints and that's exactly how I saw him.
Rough around the edges but truly a man of God. He knew every line of that crazy movie 😊 I can still hear him laughing

I always say he was ahead of his time.
You say conspiracy theorist I say genius
He was deep
He was a thinker.
A searcher of truth
A planter of seed
A light in the room
hilarious
sometimes inappropriate lol.
I loved his juvenile sense of humor
such a contrast to his serious side.
He brought me so much joy
Be at peace my nephew and best friend
I love you
Please forgive me I feel let you down

He served his country but his country didn't serve him. Shame be upon a system that doesn't value its warriors

“ Cameron was an awesome step dad. He was funny, quirky, and so smart. He loved his family ,but above all loved God. He would sing so loud and play his guitar. He made up songs as he went. Deer season was when he would get amped up. He loved to go to the farm and hunting. He was a Tom Brady fan, but rooted for the Chiefs with me. He was also a Veteran, Operation Iraqi Freedom. Jokingly he would say " These colors don't run!" Then screech like an eagle. You never knew what would come out of his mouth next. He was loved more than he knew. He will be missed beyond words.
