

Carl Cecil Hathcock

December 20, 1931 - February 20, 2022

Carl Cecil Hathcock, a beloved father, grandfather, and great-grandfather, passed away at the age of 90 years-old on February 20, 2022 in Siloam Springs, AR. Born December 20, 1931 in Greenville, MS, he was the son of Hosmer and Katie Ashcraft Hathcock. He married Hattie Harrison Medley on December 24, 1957 in Cambridge, MD, and was devoted to her his entire life. Carl spent 20 years in the Navy and served in the Korean and Vietnam Wars. After his retirement from serving, he worked as an electrician. Carl also enjoyed woodworking and traveling with his wife to sell his wares at craft shows for many years. He loved to garden and to care for his dogs. Carl was a member of the Seventh-Day Adventist Church in Siloam Springs. He was preceded in death by his wife, parents, three brothers (Wayne Hathcock, Herman Hathcock, and Thelman Hathcock), and one sister (Flora Mae Gilbert).

Survivors include: one brother, George (Pete) Hathcock; one sister, Mary Ethel Ventura; one son, Carl Russell (Rusty) Hathcock; one daughter, Carla Winzer; two grandchildren, Bryan Winzer and Rachelle Forbes; three great grandchildren, August, Brie, and Mariella; and his faithful dog, Nova.

No funeral services are planned at this time. A private family burial will be held at the Fayetteville National Cemetery, Fayetteville, Arkansas
