“ My Dad Carmon A. Cox stands out most in my mind as a man who cared about his neighbors. Dad would give the last dime he had to someone if they told Him they needed it. Dad was always one to help as much as he could, was willing to go the extra mile. He was a man of little wealth on this earth, unless you could count the people that loved him, the he would be a millionaire many times over. Dad will leave a hole in the hearts of everyone who knew Him for who He was. He has gone home to the reward that he earned here on earth. Keep smiling Dad we will see you again soon. I love you DAD.
