

Carol W. Nichols

July 28, 1938 - September 30, 2019

Carol Nichols, 81 of Siloam Springs, Arkansas, died September 30, 2019. She was born July 28, 1938. Her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Audrey Thomas, preceded in death. Also, her husband, Dr. Edward Nichols, her son David Steele and her brother/cousin Billy Vernon.

She held a B.S.E. from John Brown University and a M.Ed. from the University of Arkansas. Mrs. Nichols taught at Gentry Elementary School for 18 years as well as teaching courses at John Brown University.

On December 23, 1989, she was joined in marriage to Dr. Edward L. Nichols. Before beginning her teaching career, she was involved in many civic and voluntary activities. She was Past Matron of Gentry Chapter 359 of the Order of the Eastern Star, a founding member of the Siloam Springs Hospital Auxiliary, Neighborhood Chairman and Executive Board member of Noark Girl Scout council, a member of Betty Bumper's immunization program, a member of the Benton county Democrat Ladies Auxiliary, a member of Alpha Delta Kappa and Phi Delta Kappa.

For many years, she sang in the adult choir of First Baptist Church, Siloam Springs.

She leaves three children, Cathi Utley, Peggy Chenault, Cyndi Holt and two step children, Eddy Nichols and Lydia Collins. She had nine grandchildren, two great grandchildren and twelve step great grandchildren.

Tribute Wall

TO

“ Thoughts and prayers are with you during this time of loss. Many happy memories shared with my friend, Carol. Enjoyed many years teaching 2nd grade at Gentry. May God's peace be yours today.

today. - October 03, 2019 at 08:38 AM

LB

We were sorry to hear about Carol today. She and Ed were colleagues at JBU and hosted many student parties at “the ranch.” Blessings to the loved ones!

Lisa Brandom - October 03, 2019 at 07:26 PM