“ I was thinking of Carole Ann. Her grandmother was Leah Nicholson Tunnell and my Mother was Ruth Nicholson Stemmons. They were sisters but many years difference in age. Carole Ann was a couple of years younger than I was but we were flower girls together in another cousin's wedding (I believe it was one of our Aunt Eva Nicholson Johnson's daughters. Anyway, I'm sorry to hear she is not with us anymore. My condolences to the family... you are my cousins also, once or twice removed. I have a photo of us as flower girls in the wedding.

“ Christie,

I'm so sorry to hear about Carole. I just found out, yesterday. You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers. Carole was such a sweet and thoughtful person. I will never forget working with her. We've had some hilarious moments working in that office. Carole will always be remembered.

“ I became friends with Dick and Carole in 1990 when Dick and myself started at the police department together and went through the academy together, worked patrol together and after a few years we were detectives together. Got to know Carole when my wife and I would go to there home to play cards. Dick was quite the card player. I thought of Dick and Carole often and am ashamed that I didn't visit Carole over the past few years like I should have as she has been on my mind over the last several months. Although it is comforting to know that her and Dick are back together again, I will miss them. Christi, you take care and God bless you.

“ When I first began my dispatching career at Siloam Springs Police Dept. Dick Wales was a Patrol Officer. Not having the best of radio equipment it was difficult at times locating our officers. I could always count on the telephone to ring and hear Carole's voice say "Nathan this is Carole he checked out at.." They had a deep love for one another without doubt and it lives forever.

God Bless.
