“ To Jerry and Family,

I was very sad to hear about Carolyn's passing. I am glad I was able to make it to the memorial service - it was very nice. I didn't get to see her as often as I would have liked too after she left Webb but the times I did get to see her we had a good time chatting about family and life in general. I can still see her holding and feeding Lindsey like it was yesterday. She was such a sweet, talented, and kind hearted person and I will miss her very much. She won't be in pain or suffer any more. Heaven has received another beautiful angel and she will be watching over all of us. God Bless!

“ Dear Jerry and family words cannot express how saddened we are. Distance has kept us physically apart, but has not dimenished our love, thoughts and prayers. God has chosen to take our sweet Carolyn. Her battle is over. She is no longer suffering and is at peace. May you find some sense of comfort in knowing this and that God will bring us all together again. Until then, may the memories of all the happy years help ease your sorrow and bring peace to your heart. With love and deepest sympathy. Judy and Joe
