“ My sweet Mimi, not a day will go by that I won't think of you. Everything you taught me, every life lesson, it will all stick with me til the day I come home to you. My best friend, my mentor, my Mimi. Every time I get sad or upset Little Gracie is there to tell me n remind me that you are always inside of me. You will always live in my heart. I'll forever miss and love you so much. I'll always be grateful that out of everyone in this world the lord picked you to be my mimi. He definitely knew how much I would need you in my life. I hope you continue to stand proud by my side and keep showing me the right way in life. No matter what I did you were always my biggest fan, and always supporting and encouraging me in everything I did. I hope I keep making you proud. I wish I could have told you more, how much you meant to me and how much I really do love you. I miss you so much already, I can't wait to see your beautiful smile and hear you laugh and say, there's my Sarah Beth, I sure do love you girl. 🧡🧡

“ Carolyn and I were friends in school and both sets of our parents were friends with John Henry and Marcie. I looked at her graduation picture yesterday and she was so pretty and sweet. Hoping the family finds peace knowing she is no pain and with the heavenly father. That has helped me with Johnny's passing. Love to all.

“Carolyn was family. Our son is married to her grand daughter, and we know how much she was loved. A very gracious lady who handled her long illness with aplomb and humor. We were honored to know her. Our sincere condolences to Papa Charles. I know her immediate family will miss her greatly.
