“ My little cousin, Carolyn lived in a far off kingdom, called Colcord. I met her on several occasions over the years. I think of the sacrifices my dad's sister and family had to give in order to keep this little lady near them. The doctors told my aunt and uncle she would never live more than a couple of years after she was born. Aunt Zelma and Uncle Ervin proved the doctors wrong. It occurred to me just last night that she is the real fairytale story. Her prince and kingdom was Marilyn, Bud and those who shared in her laughter, joy, sorrow and pain. On Saturday she walked into her eternal home to be with her father, mother and Holy Ghost. Thank you Lord for all of your loving angels sent to help in her care.

“ Carolyn is my cousin as her mom was my Aunt Zelma. And my dad, Don January (Putt), was Zelma's brother.

I remember visiting the Duncan family and seeing all the love that Carolyn received from her family. I remember that she always had her baby doll where ever she went. She would get so excited when she saw that we were there for a visit.

I am so sorry to get the news of her passing. She is now with her mommy and daddy and in a better place. I am sad of her passing but can picture how excited she is to be HOME!! I love you all and am so thankful for all the care and love you have given her all these years. God Bless you all!!

Love from the Coopers! April Gaye, Randy, Chris and Krystal
