“ Sister Carol, was one special lady . We considered her and bro. George more then friends they were family to us. Sister Carol had many talents.
She.was always willing to go the extra mile for anyone in need
We were blessed to be her and Bro. George pastor for 28 1/2 years at the Springtown Pentecostal Church.

“ Sister Carol, as we knew her, was such a sweet lady. Gary and I spent years with her at Springtown Church and her farm for Harvestfest. My favorite song she played and sang was "Mary did you know?" Now she and Mary can visit along with all the others gone on ahead of those us remaining, waiting for our turn or Jesus' return. I remember she liked yellow and lemon pie. She will be missed by many.
