“ Carolyn and I were 1st Cousins. I only found her a few years ago as I discovered my biological lineage. Once we connected it was like we both had so much to share! We would talk for an hour at a time exchanging stories and our Christian faith. She was devote in her Bible reading as she found comfort in knowing the Word. The only thing more that she liked to talk about more was her son Robert and her grandchildren! Carolyn always told me how proud and grateful she was to have them so close by, in her heart and in distance. I will miss her although I never met her in person. She was a lovely woman with s generous heart. I know the angels rejoiced as the trumpets sounded upon her arrival. She walks in God’s Garden today in her new body without pain. R.I.P. Carolyn
