“ *Cathy was a beautiful soul. Beautiful inside and out. Her love of the Lord and her family was evident. A loving mother, wife, daughter, sister and friend. “ Cathy was a classmate of mine and I will never forget her smile, she was always wearing one. She was truly beautiful inside and out. I had just recently, in the past year or two caught back up with her on facebook and I loved to see her post of her family and especially her post on her beliefs of her Savior Jesus Christ. I know without a doubt that she would say to all of her friends and family to be ready for the return of Jesus and that she will see all of you in heaven again. Her faith was strong as was her love for her family and friends, she truly will be missed. She truly left her mark on this earth, I only pray that I leave such a mark s she has.To all of her family, my thoughts and especially my prayers go out to you, she truly was a beautiful woman.God bless all of you.

“ I will always remember Cathy when she was a little girl. Always following Leoti around. Wanting to be involved in whatever she was doing. Keeping a watchful eye out on what ever was happening as all little sisters do.

As she started getting older and coming into her own, it was no surprise to anyone the amazing woman and mother she had become years later. She had a wonderful sense of humor, and a zest for life beyond compare. Her family and faith always coming first.

We kept in touch over the years. On my part, probably not as often as I should have.

I've always considered her part of my family since our families met 48 years ago.

My condolences go out to Cathy's husband and daughters... to her sister Leoti, my thoughts are with you. Always know how much she loved you. There is no doubt in my mind she knew how much all of you loved her.
