

Cecil Ray Robison

May 3, 1940 - September 9, 2025

Cecil Ray Robison, 85, of Siloam Springs, Arkansas, passed away on September 9, 2025, at his home. He was born May 3, 1940, in Siloam Springs, to Ruben and Edna (Vernon) Robison.

Cecil is preceded in death by both parents, and one sister, Mary Anglin. He is survived by his wife, Helen (Janes) Robison, of the home; daughters: Teresa Lambert and husband Curtis, of Lubbock, Texas; Mary Cox and husband Stephen, of Lincoln, Arkansas; his son, Jimmy Robison, and wife Wynona, of Stilwell, Oklahoma; grandchildren: James, Becky, Tiffany, Aaron, Brittney, Jamie, and Brandon; numerous great-grandchildren, nieces, and nephews; sister, Betty Gaiche and husband Dale, of Siloam Springs; and sister, Ruth Woodruff and husband Brien, of Siloam Springs.

Cecil was very proud (but not as proud as his family) of his military service. He retired from the United States Navy, as First Class Petty Officer, after devotedly serving his nation for 20 years. He was as loyal as he was loving. Cecil also retired, after 20 years, from Gates Rubber Company, in Siloam Springs. Aside from being a husband, father, and grandfather, his passions were cattle ranching, and raising race horses, which he was very good at. Cecil's ashes will be placed in the Columbarium at Fayetteville National Cemetery, in Fayetteville, Arkansas. There are no services planned at this time.
