“ I wanted to express my condolences for your loss. I'm sure this is a difficult time for your family.

One thing that has helped me to cope with loss, is the Bible's hope of a resurrection. Jesus said at John 5:28,29, :“the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.”

Knowing that God is not the cause of death is also comforting. Hebrews 2:14 says in part, "he (Jesus) will bring to nothing the one having the means to cause death, that is, the Devil."

When Jesus friend Lazarus died, Jesus grieved. "Jesus gave way to tears." (John 11:35) So if Jesus grieved, even though he was about to resurrect Lazarus, then surely he feels for those of us who grieve!

Once again, I'm sorry to hear about your loss. Even though these scriptures cannot erase your pain, hopefully they will help you to cope.

Very Sincerely,

Scott Smith

“ Conreys,
I am so sorry for your loss. Charleye was a grand lady whom we all thought the world of. She was always so kind and gracious. I remember riding in the car with Dick and Charleye sometime when Mamma died and Charleye was such a comfort. She and Dick kept talking about memories of Mamma-good times they had together. Please know that we all are praying for comfort for you through these tough times you are going through.
