

Charles Haskel Cearley

January 16, 1943 - May 14, 2019

Charles Haskel Cearley of Siloam Springs, Arkansas, died May 14, 2019 at Bentonville Northwest Medical Center. He was born January 16, 1943 in DeQueen, Arkansas to JV Cearley and Jessie Alene Landon Cearley. He married Margaret McGuire on August 6, 1969. Charles moved to Siloam Springs as a very young child and spent the rest of his life in this area. He graduated from Siloam Springs High in 1961. After graduating high school he built and operated West Coast Lumber Company in his parent's back yard which later sold to what is now T H Rogers lumber. After leaving the lumber business in 1970, he and wife Margaret operated CC Farms through many varied ventures. They were in the poultry business for several years, first raising turkeys then raising breeder hens. During this time Charles was developing his dream of a registered herd of Beefmaster cattle. He was a member of the BBU association. He custom baled hay all around the neighborhood and also cleared land by cutting and selling wood. Charles had an inventive mind always coming up with ideas of things that would make a job easier. His legacy lives on at the farm through the work of his family. He was a much loved husband, dad and pawper.

He is survived by his wife of the home; two daughters Melinda Mathe and husband Ted and Amanda Frye and husband John; five grandchildren Audrey Mathe, Natalie Mathe, Jared Frye, Maggie Mathe and Katie Frye all of Siloam Springs, Arkansas; sister Anita Robards of Tulsa, Oklahoma; brother Lon Cearley and wife Susan of Monett, Missouri; aunt Evelyn Mason of Siloam

Springs, Arkansas; two nephews and two nieces and three cousins.
